

Y. M. C. A. Camp on South River Near Annapolis

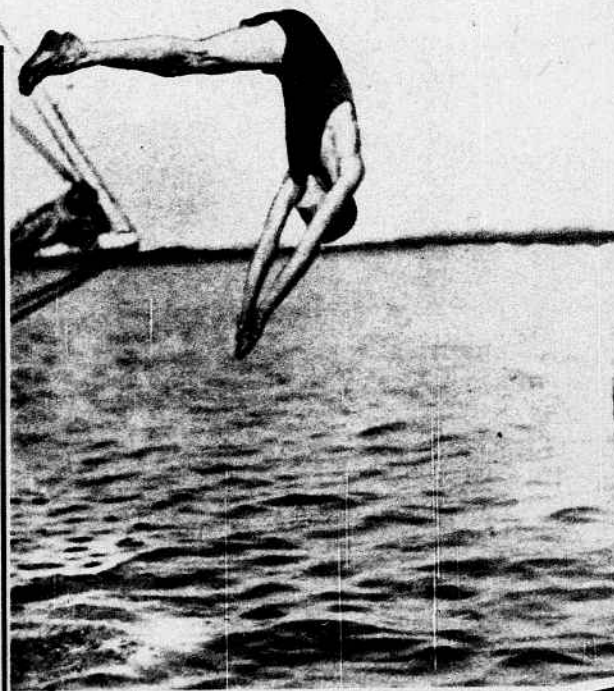

Start of a 220-yard Race.

Prize Winners. These Young Athletes Have Something to Show to the Folks at Home as a Result of Their Prowess in Various Sports.

Party Starting Out for an Over-night Camp.

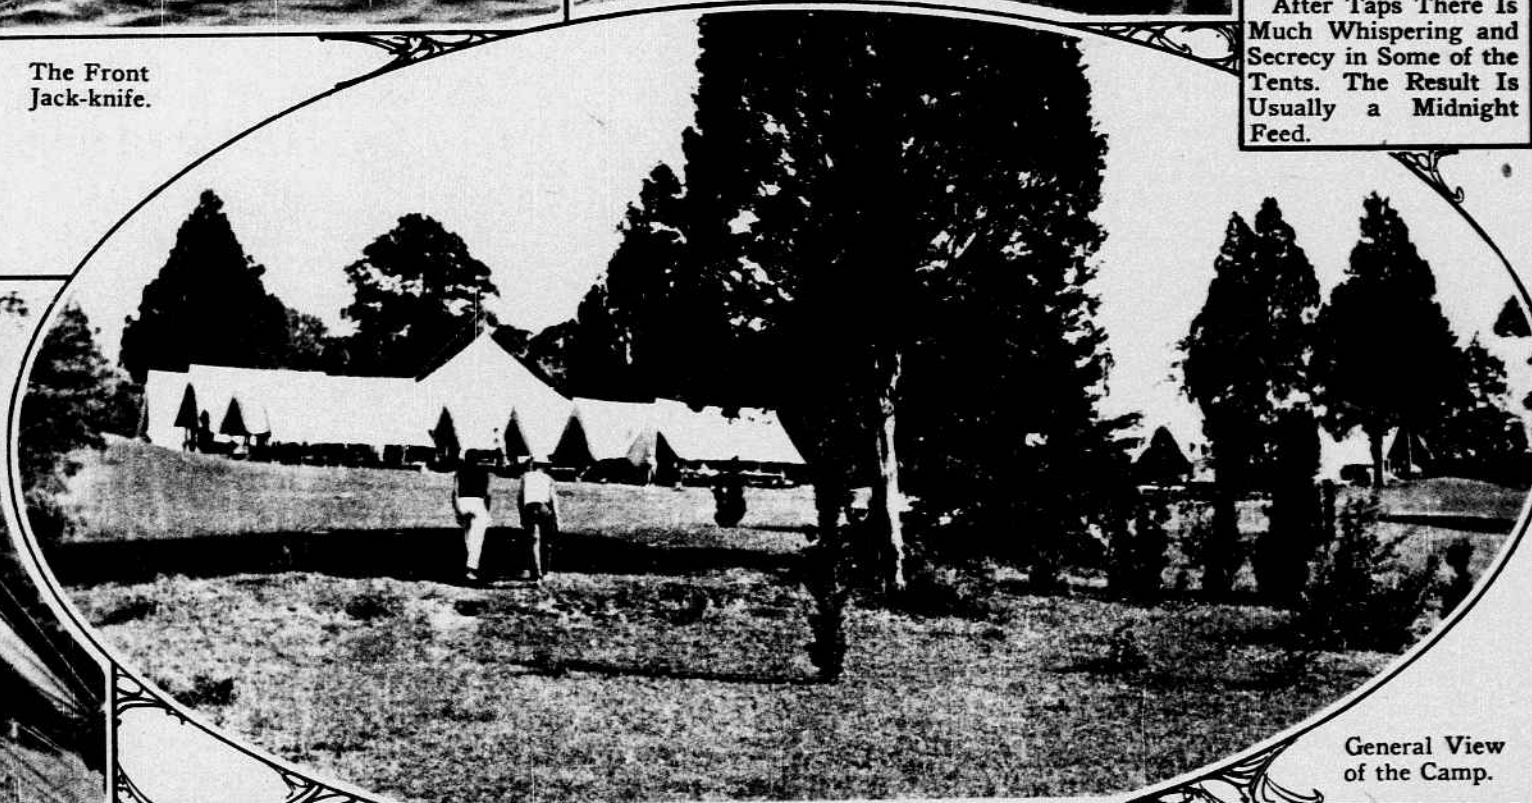

The Front Jack-knife.

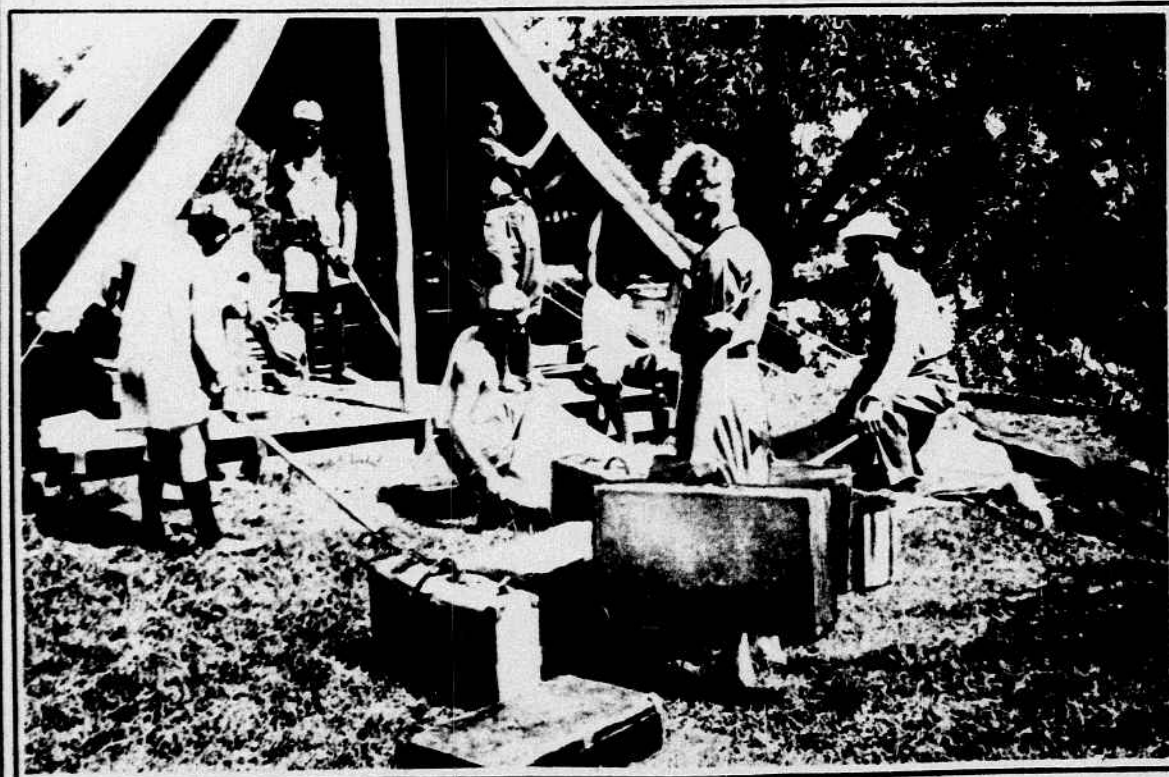

After Taps There Is Much Whispering and Secrecy in Some of the Tents. The Result Is Usually a Midnight Feed.

Winners of the South River Camp Banner for Highest Points Scored in Athletics

General View of the Camp.

Making Ready for Tent Inspection.

(Photographs by C. T. Chapman.)

Lunch Time at Annapolis. Frequent Sightseeing Trips Are Made by the Boys to the Naval Academy.